Statement on Kosher compliance

PROBI takes every precaution in processing and selling 100% plant-based products for baking and professional use, without any additives.

PROBI's products do not contain animal, milk, or grape-derived ingredients.

PROBI products are not produced at manufacturing facilities that process animal-derived products, including dairy, nor are they processed or handled with equipment that has come into contact with any ingredient of animal origin.

All PROBI products are stored separately from products of animal origin or products containing animal, dairy, or grape ingredients at all times.

The following PROBI products and product lines adhere to Kosher guidelines:

- 1) Blue Poppy Seeds, Origin: Czech Republic
- 2) Caraway Seeds, Origin: Czech Republic
- 3) Flax Seeds, Origin EU
- 4) Mustard Seeds, Origin: Czech Republic
- 5) Yellow and Green Dry Peas, Origin: Czech Republic

Unfortunately, we do not have an official Kosher certificate in place, nor are any plans in place to obtain one. Therefore, it remains the customer's responsibility to use these materials in Kosher applications.
